Re: Domina Shipmanagement Ltd. v. Medway Chartering Ltd., et al.
08 Civ. 01155 (RWS)
Our File No.: 2652006

Dear Judge McKenna:

We represent plaintiff Domina Shipmanagement Ltd. ("Domina") in this action.

Further to our letter dated February 21, the parties have now executed a Settlement Agreement, settlement funds have been remitted, and instructions have been sent to the garnishce banks to release the funds under attachment. We anticipate that the funds will be released by the banks shortly. The parties have also submitted a Stipulation and Order of Dismissal to the Orders and Judgments Clerk.

Meanwhile, the briefing on defendant's motion to vacate the attachment was adjourned to accommodate the settlement process. Now that a settlement has been finalized, on behalf of defendant, we write to advise that the motion to vacate has been withdrawn without prejudice. Moreover, on behalf of both parties, we ask that the current dates for briefing of the motion be cancelled.

We thank you for your attention to this matter.

So ordered. U.S. District Court - SDNY 2/29/08
